THE WAR & FRAUD NEOCONS

In June of 2014, a group of American researchers published an article in the American Journal of Public Health;

Since the end of World War II, there have been 248 armed conflicts in 153 locations around the world.

The United States launched 201 overseas military operations between the end of World War II and 2001, and since then, others, including Afghanistan and Iraq."

The USA initiated more than 80% of all wars in the last seventy years.
