

More Rats Abandoning the Biden Ship

The degeneration of the United States under the fake Biden regime has reached the point where many staunch allies are abandoning it. The chaotic withdrawal from Afghanistan is turning out to be just one domino of many that will soon fall, multiple sources agree.

The next dominoes are predicted to be Iraq, Saudi Arabia, and Ukraine. However, the elephant in the living room remains Israel, Iran, and their Swiss-based sponsors. The Palestinians understand this, which is why they have announced they will no longer deal with the fake Biden regime. <https://www.jpost.com/israel-news/palestinians-no-return-to-peace-talks-under-us-leadership-677802>

When Israeli Prime Minister Naftali Bennett met with the Rockefeller proxy Joe Biden on August 21st he repeated the mantra that “Iran is the world’s number one exporter of terror, instability and human rights violations.” However, a critical mass in the world’s military and intelligence community knows that Israel and Iran work for the same people. So the real question is when is this Swiss-based nexus of world terror finally going to be dealt with.

When they fall, then puppet leaders like Biden, Justin Castro of Canada, Emmanuelle Macron of France, and Scott Morrison of Australia, etc. will also be removed.

Already we are seeing signs that Germany, Japan, and other supposed allies of the U.S. regime are breaking ranks. The immediate trigger for this is a growing realization that the fake pandemic is a massive war crime.

In Germany, a legal team has been running an exercise for a new government structure with a priority to stop all Covid-19 injections because they are unsafe. <https://www.bitchute.com/video/5Rf83cc8FDPB/>

German allies like Denmark are planning to end all Covid-related measures by October. <https://freewestmedia.com/2021/08/09/denmark-abolishes-all-corona-measures/>

In Japan, Tokyo’s Medical Association Chairman Kazuhiro Nagao held a press conference on Japanese TV where he came out against vaccines and says he’s used #ivermectin as an early treatment for over 500 covid patients with a practically 100% success rate. Nagao has asked for nationwide use. <https://twitter.com/brenontheroad/status/1429624844379824129>

Around the same time, Moderna got busted for contamination with “foreign substances” that appear to be magnetic and the Japanese government started recalling 1.63 million doses of the mRNA jab.

Japan is reacting because during the Olympics, foreign agents...

carried out massive electromagnetic attacks on the general population of Tokyo, resulting in 23,000 people per day getting sick. They know it was an attack and are reacting accordingly.

The big battle now is to convince the mid-ranking brainwashed people in the medical establishment that the whole pandemic is fake. This letter from a reader describes the situation:

“On many occasions you flatly deny covid-19 and while I am open to this position, it is a tough sale to anyone who has worked the front-lines. As an ICU RN, I personally cared for patients that followed a distinct 2-week course with very distinct symptoms in a distinct timeline such as coagulopathy (clotting disorders) and acute respiratory distress syndrome (ARDS). In 10 years of working in the ICU, I had never encountered that number of patients all presenting a similar course then declining into ARDS. Perhaps it was brought on by the trial drugs we were giving (Remdesivir). It is also notable that Ivermectin is extremely effective at treating whatever is going around. I have heard Brazil is now prophylactically administering this with strong results (unverified). Also, if covid-19 is a complete hoax, what is/was the genetic sequence as provided by the Chinese scientific community in 2019? I'm not trying to pick a bone with you, rather if I'm going up the chain of command at UCLA I need some solid info to get the attention of middle and non-corrupted upper management."

Here is the answer:

The evidence and symptoms we see are all a perfect fit for an electromagnetic attack. A weakened immune system due to EMF poisoning allows a multitude of pathogens that already exist inside us and around us to gain an advantage. We express various symptoms as a result, which get associated with a "list of symptoms" that makes up a "syndrome" like AIDS or SARS. Zinc deficiency also expresses similar symptoms as the seasonal cold and flu. When you combine those symptoms with an over-magnified PCR "test" designed to create 95%+ false positives then it's easy to see how EMF poisoning can become Covid-19.

Remdesivir being incorporated into the "standard of care" in the US was designed to cause various illnesses that could represent the harsh effects of Covid. It was never proven safe when used in the past for Ebola. Gilead's cohort study of 53 patients had 30% sent to the emergency room. Incredibly 22% all had 4 major life-threatening side effects of multiple organ failure, hypotension, septic shock, and acute kidney failure.

Combine this with the wrong prescriptions for antibiotics like vancomycin in the UK, which also causes acute kidney failure, and hospitals become a dangerous place to visit.

In Japan, Remdesivir got emergency approval after only 3 days as the "standard of care" in intensive care wards...presumably for its clear benefits of extremely high price and killer side effects to keep the scoreboard news shows pumping out fear porn.

The key point in dealing with brainwashed types in power is to ask them why nobody has a purified isolate of SARS-Cov-2 and why it has never been seen under a microscope. The CDC and the WHO etc. all admit they do not have a sample. The genetic sequences they are magnifying are a collection of common genetic material and that's why over-magnified PCR creates positive test results for such things as goats, fruit, cola, ice cream, etc.

In the testing centers, they are telling people that smoking or having coffee or eating before the saliva test will result in a false positive. In other words, the PCR test is magnifying certain types of non-human DNA and calling it "Covid-19."

A senior doctor at a major Canadian hospital that is the center of the fight against Covid-19 says there is something "extremely unusual" about the reaction. Every year new types of coronavirus appear and every year about 8% of mostly elderly people succumb to it, she says. There was no difference between the coronavirus mortality in 2020 than there was in any other year so the government reaction "is some kind of conspiracy," she says.

The other very unusual response seen is that people who got covid and recovered have natural immunity that is better than anything a vaccine could provide. But strangely, natural immunity is not being recognized as a valid form of protection anymore.

The realization that something is very wrong has led the British military to follow the Germans and Japanese by also attacking the vaccine/covid mafia. "There was a massive fire at a super testing facility in England on August 27th so the usual run to the hills and burn everything," was how MI6 described the situation. "Clearly the military is taking control so the effect will be as big as a mushroom bomb cloud," they say. According to MI6 a "skew" in the testing procedures being used to create large amounts of false positives has been identified and is being dismantled.

Part of the trigger for the delayed military reaction was the fall of Afghanistan, MI6 says. The latest analysis suggests the incompetent Biden regime thought that their client Afghan government with its 300,000 Western equipped and trained soldiers would be able to keep power. What they failed to realize is that the Afghans do not want a puppet government, which is why the “for-profit” troops decided to go home with their winnings and not fight the Taliban. The Taliban, in captured American uniforms, staged an Iwo Jima-type flag raising to symbolically declare the end of the American Empire.

In a further sign of this end, Saudi Arabia has signed a military mutual defense pact with RUSSIA, abandoning the former U.S. agreement that gave power to the “petrodollar,” according to Mossad sources. “If true, this means the end of the dollar is VERY near... and the nations of the world will abandon the dollar, simultaneously, probably before the end of this year. That’s the end of Washington D.C., the Biden regime, the dollar, and America as we know it,” the source predicts. What this source fails to realize is that the dollar is no longer controlled by the Americans and the U.S. regime can only issue fiat currency inside the U.S. and or launder dollars into the economy via the stock market.

The Rockefeller-Rothschild regime is now cornered and desperately fighting to stay in power via their usual strategy of murder, bribery, and lies.

In the U.S. Robert David Steele, who has been carrying out an anti-cabal tour of the country appears to have been attacked with an electromagnetic weapon.

Steele, who was in robust health, is now in a critical care facility at the Central Florida Regional Hospital at 1401 West Seminole Blvd, Sanford, Florida, according to colleagues.

“Robert was somehow put into a medically induced coma, he is intubated,” they say.

The sources say RDS gave Charlotte Rose medical power of attorney/authority. Rose says he is a “medical prisoner,” and that hospitals are the new concentration camps. “Hospitals are a marvelous place for the Deep State to take out people that are inconvenient to them,” the colleagues say. We have not heard directly from RDS about this except for a brief message saying the situation was “touch and go.”

As this report goes live we are getting reports that RDS has passed away. MI6 says they were told by the CIA that RDS was killed because he was caught passing on classified documents. A Mossad source said this sounds like an excuse aimed at avoiding the inevitable retaliation.

Your correspondent also appears to be under some sort of pressure and was blocked from returning to Japan as scheduled. Air Canada’s rule change for passengers heading to Japan required a PCR test before boarding the plane. However, when I asked the Japanese government before leaving for Canada I was told that a test upon my return would be sufficient.

There appears to be an effort to forestall a meeting scheduled with the Dragon Family in the fall. The meeting is aimed at taking control over the Western financial system away from the criminal Rothschild/Rockefeller nexus. Without their magic money machine, the cabal is doomed so it is clear they are pulling out all the stops to keep that power in their own hands.

However, the ongoing collapse of the U.S. economy with inflation, food shortages, and social decay is not going to be stopped by murdering a few dissidents.

In any case, the lesson the Khazarian Mafia is going to learn is that there is such a thing as reality and no matter how hard they try to avoid it, it has a way of eventually catching up with you. In other words, declaring medical martial law based on a pandemic that does not exist is a doomed strategy because it is not based on the real world.

There is no doubt these criminals are planning further mass murder events etc. to stay in power. That’s why we need to intensify the hunt to take them down and bring them to justice.
