Great Tartary

The world's greatest civilisation wiped from history

Great Tartary was a developed power with advanced technology and knowledge. It had an abundance of natural resources, including precious stones, gold and silver, and even a well-established industrial production of paper money, silk, paper and gunpowder, which was mainly used in mining.

Its development put this power beyond the reach of the rest of the world. Marco Polo, for example, describes an exchange office where merchants exchanged gold and silver dirhams for paper money. They were using PAPER as early as the thirteenth century!

The destruction of Great Tartary began with a combined natural and magical-technological catastrophe and the use of high-energy weapons, analogous to nuclear and thermonuclear weapons.

A highly advanced civilisation known today as Great Tartaria. It disappeared from our history books less than a century ago. Its remnants can still be seen everywhere. This civilisation mastered technologies more advanced than those of today.

Its geopolymer concrete was eternal and grew stronger with time. Their gigantic iron and glass structures, topped by domes and metal needles, were found on every continent.

Combined with mercury, they distributed free atmospheric energy to all. Their towers and stations are still in use today. Unfortunately, the technology of free energy from the ether was destroyed and "imprisoned", and the old technology was reintroduced, such as cables and wires to distribute energy and make handsome profits.

Hundreds of battles, revolutions and wars were fought throughout the 18th and 19th centuries, orchestrated by Western Europeans under the Anglo-Saxons, with the aim of finally destroying and plundering the heritage of Greater Tartary throughout the world.

This empire was then deliberately and carefully erased from new maps, written sources and even human memory. Instead, countless myths were created about the despotic, narrow-minded Mongols – the Golden Horde.

But there is a time for everything, and the time of Tartary's damnation and oblivion is now over, and the time of its spectacular rebirth in a whole new form is upon us. We would be honoured to be part of this great renaissance.

At least one of these catastrophes was of a global nature, and in the centuries that followed there was a huge number of smaller "catastrophes" such as; wars, numerous serious "unexplained fires", mysterious epidemics, etc.

Climate manipulation

The Tunguska explosion is one of the echoes of these events. A mysterious blast 1000 times stronger than the atomic bomb. At that time there was a shift of the poles, which caused a strong tidal wave with immediate freezing and formation of an ice crust and permafrost in the lands of Tartary, where once there was a subtropical climate in Russia and North America. According to the Encyclopedia Britannica, Siberia was the largest supplier of pineapples to Europe in the 17th century.

Modern climate warming is therefore nothing more than the restoration of the normal temperature regime on planet Earth, which was disrupted by external interference in the 17th and 18th centuries. The climate hoax is cabal inspired!

Traces of this secret cataclysmic event can be seen all over the world. According to the climate change that occurred several hundred years ago, the Earth's thawing time can be calculated from the rate of permafrost retreat from the north. According to scientists, by 2050 only 15-18% of the current permafrost area will remain on the territory of Russia.

But most of the 17th-century Tatar population managed to evacuate in time, long before the disaster began. The magicians at the Great Khan's court did not eat the local bread for free. Many small groups of people miraculously escaped destruction by evacuating to mountaintops and caves. They became the founders of the Yukaghir tribe – the indigenous Caucasian population of Yakutia, Kolyma and Chukotka.

The rest rushed south, west and into Europe. The Great Tatar Empire lasted until 1812, and there is a map of Tatarstan from 1811. As a result, there are serious reasons to believe that the 'Patriotic War of 1812', like other Napoleonic wars, was nothing more than a military operation aimed at destroying Tatarstan by targeted attacks through climate manipulation.

Unlimited Energy Rediscovered

By the late 1890s, Nikola Tesla had 'rediscovered' the technology to connect to the ether and provide unlimited power to anyone, anywhere, at any time. You could travel by boat, car or plane for free by simply accessing nature's omnipresent magnetic energy, and we have not been 'allowed' to enjoy this free energy for all, even to this day, due to our capitalist system of greed and domination by those in power.

Free Energy existed on Earth long ago

So for over 100 hundred years ago we have been denied a benevolent system of free energy for all.

According to Wikipedia, power stations were built in Cairo, Egypt, as early as 876 BC. It is the largest and oldest in Egypt in its original form. All the power stations in Tartaria, large and small, had pipe organs to harmonise and heal the population through sound waves, known today as “cymatics”.

The churches and cathedrals we see around the world all have similar design patterns, designed with sacred acoustic geometry to maximise vibration, tone and resonance to heal and help download higher consciousness. After the Great Purge of the Tatars, the religious orders, led by the Romanovs, rebuilt these amazing structures into Presbyterian, Catholic, Anglican, Mormon synagogues, mosque temples and so on.

The Russian scholar Anatoly Fomenko proves that modern written history only dates back to the One World Tartars to 1200 AD.

These idiots with their creation of the trilateral New World Order (NWO) founded by the Vatican, City of London and Washington D.C. The United States is defined as a federal corporation under US Code 3002 Section 15.

The Virginia based Company was transformed into the United States during the non-existent Revolutionary War by the Freemasonic Founding Fathers serving the Grand Lodge of England.

The Virginia Company was issued by the British Royal Family from the City of London Corporation for North American settlements. In 1213, King John surrendered the Kingdom of England to the Holy See under the Golden Bull. In 1215, under direct papal authority, King John issued the Magna Carta (Latin for Great Charter), which established the one-mile square block called the City of London Corporation as the sovereign entity of England and London.

The Holy See uses Latin for official documents and the Vatican uses Latin as its official language. Novus Ordo Seclorum is Latin and translates as New Order of the Ages and is on the Great Seal of the United States and the United States one dollar bill. Washington DC is in both Virginia and Maryland. This is the land of the Virgin Mary.

DC was originally named Rome in 1669, according to the Catholic Encyclopedia. DC is Roman architecture and Capitol Hill is named after the Capitoline Hill in Rome. The ancient Roman symbol of the fasces can be seen on federal buildings and federal seals. The federal government is based on the Roman Republic, which was a fascist empire. The Roman fasces is where the word “fascist” comes from.

The Old World Order were the benevolent Tartarians. One of their only primary directives was

“What you take from nature, you give back more!

Their nature/nurture was based on Isis, the moon goddess who created and provided for all. One can only conclude from the extremely similar structures seen all over the world that they all lived in a common language and were all connected in common thought, intention and design.

They had healing centres even for animals. They had passive relationships with all life because they had evolved their consciousness to radiate love and benevolence to all. Their flag was a griffin, which was a real animal!

"PEOPLE IN THE DARK AGES WERE UNEDUCATED DIRTY PEASANTS"
THE "DARK AGES":

The griffin is part human, part eagle, part lion and part androgynous bull. According to their maps and legends, there were also centaurs, flying turtles and unicorns.

We can only assume that the entire Tartar people were destroyed when the NWO learned how to use Tartar technology and used it to destroy the entire culture and erase their existence from modern history books.

Billions of Tartars were “eliminated” when the healing technology was used to destroy them.

We find millions of bones buried under cities and huge asylums where they probably imprisoned the adult Tartars after separating them from their children; to be sold for slave labour and shipped on “foundling trains” which had crematoria and large cemeteries on their grounds.

So the once great Tartars had a common language!

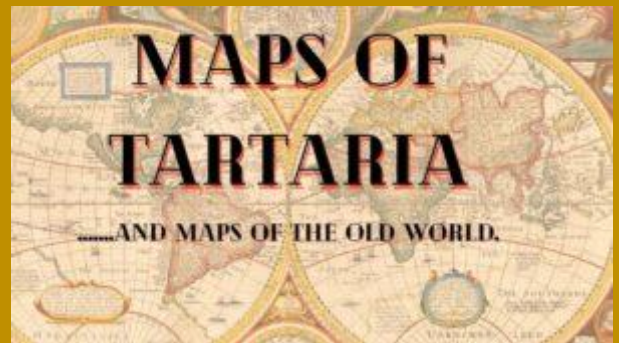

The New World Order unfolding today probably genocided the Tartars, under the spiritual mind and body control of Lucifer and Satan. Some of these mind-controlled NWOs are called “Blue Bloods” because their blood has a higher copper content than non-RH negative bloodline humans.

Structures that extract energy from the ether with the same colours as Tartaria have all been destroyed. Tartaria was the whole world: Asia, Africa, Europe, Oceania and the Americas were all part of a single high civilisation and had architecture focused on the extraction of critical magnetic energy.

Great Tartaria was then t historically divided into civilisation categories such as the Ottoman Empire, the Byzantine Empire and the Ross Empire. These changes were then ‘archived’ in places such as the Throne Room of the Grand Kremlin Palace in Moscow, the National Archives of Britain and the Library of Congress in Washington.

To be clear,

Tartaria was the whole world with a unified language and architectural design.

How could the many pyramids found around the world have the same structure and design if the Tartars were not all connected somehow?

Historical forgeries

In the case of geographical and ethnographic names, forgery has probably proved the most effective method historical falsifiers. Modern historians cannot be blamed sincerely believing in history as a science and not questioning the dogmas that became official several generations before they were born.

They work with what is available, and their delusions are more their misfortune than their fault. Will it be bittersweet for them when they finally realise that they have spent their whole lives studying something that does not exist in nature, and that their dissertations and books are only good for the dustbin?

The pernicious, man-made and deep-rooted myth that transforms a comprehensible and logical history into a kind of confusion and a space of wild speculation, that distorts and compares pseudo-sciences with pseudo-religions and creates further obscurity, must be exposed.

Speaking of Mongols and “Tatar-Mongols”. In this case, the existence of the idea of any probability of errors and delusions of historians is not admitted. This is a clear, uncompromising and malicious intention aimed at the permanent and long-term promotion of a false basic historical “framework” designed to completely manipulate the public.

This kind of information sabotages any attempt to restore historical truth, which is made a crime by those who doggedly guard the cabal’s agenda. It is called the “flip-flop method”, where a lie is declared to be true fact and any doubt about its validity is declared to be a conspiracy theory and a hostile “attempt to rewrite history”.

Think about how We the People are being misled for the purposes of the Agenda!

The Hidden Empire of Tartaria – Updated Version

In an epochal revelation, Russian President Vladimir Putin takes the world by storm, opening a new archive and shedding light on the shadowy history of the once colossal empire of Tartaria.

A ghost from the past re-emerges, beckoning us to re-examine our understanding of world history.

That cold January day, the 15th, is forever etched in the annals of history. Russian President Vladimir Putin, an enigma in his own right, inaugurated a new archive, a treasure trove revealing a hidden realm of history.

A silent guardian of the nation’s rich past, this repository would make Tartar maps public. The question on everyone’s lips is: Why is this important?
