

Fake News or Free Speech

The term Fake News has been used by “The UK Establishment” & The Main Stream Media in the Western Nations to discredit alternate news & information coming from sources other than The Established News Networks.

In 2013, stories emanating from Edward Snowdens’ NSA leaks which exposed the use of US Government agencies to track & retain data on the general population failed to be suppressed because of Internet discussion & information being spread worldwide. Articles written by The Guardian at the time resulted in their offices being raided by the CIA & MI6 & computer hard drives being destroyed. The Guardian was put under extreme pressure by the Cameron government with The Editor of the time being replaced & The Guardian forced to comply with CIA & UK government propaganda.

The BBC was similarly put under pressure to toe the UK Gov propaganda line by the Cameron government threatening to cut down the BBC Licence fee. Again the managing director was replaced, the BBC Trust was shut down & supervision of the BBC transferred to Ofcom a government controlled agency.

The result of this action by The UK Government against the London Free Press & Media resulted in the other Media & Press organisations falling into line with UK Government & CIA requirements. The London Media output is therefore controlled by the UK government who have an agenda not only to control information to the general population but also to its’ own MP’s.

The growth of Internet News websites which have delved into past & present actions by UK/US/EU governments has led to an alternate viewpoint outside of Government control.

The reference in the current Fake News government enquiry to the 2016 US presidential election appears to refer to the allegation that “Russia” hacked the Democratic National Committee computer server & released Hillary Clinton emails through Wikileaks.

This was found to be untrue even though the Main Stream Media used it at length to discredit Donald Trump during the election.

Even President Obama stated that the DNC server was not “hacked” but that the information was “leaked”.

The Main Stream Media then used its “Power to Omit” when it became obvious that the leaker was Seth Rich, a member of the DNC who was subsequently murdered.

The further exposure by Wikileaks of; Deep State, The Clinton Crime Cartel, The Bush Crime Cartel, 9/11, the Kennedy assassination, paedophilia blackmail, child trafficking, satanic rituals & drug running, led to the CIA/MSM creation of the meme “Fake News.”

So everything that The Government deems to be “Fake News” is therefore “Not Real.”

This unfortunately has everything to do with the current change in our Western Society which is the most important historic event of the last 700 years.

The total suppression of News on the creation of a World Global Government run by George Soros & a cartel of International Bankers. A plan which looked to everyone outside of this clique to be the insane Destruction of World Democracy & Nation States on an industrial scale.

When the newly designated “Fake News” outlets read through United Nation Agenda 21 they realised that it was the creation of a Fascist Banker World Government where the population were slaves controlled by Martial Law. The casual intention of this Global Government to introduce this change into Europe & the USA with media provoked Civil War & a nuclear WW3 with Russia that would destroy Europe & the USA provoked a backlash.

Anyone who wants to know what is going in the world should involve themselves daily/weekly in 50+ available sources of Main Stream & Alternate News & then use their own personal judgement to assess which is right or wrong.

People who only read or watch Main Stream Media have no idea what is going on.
